Sexually explicit entertainment on licensed premises

Liquor Control Reform Act 1998

OFFICE USE ONLY

This form should be used by a licensee to notify the Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation (the Commission) that it provides, or intends to provide, sexually explicit entertainment on the licensed premises. Please answer all questions on this form.

Under the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998 (the Act), a licensee must notify the Commission within 21 days after commencing to provide sexually explicit entertainment on the licensed premises. It is an offence not to notify the Commission and a penalty applies. Failure to notify may also result in disciplinary action being taken against the licensee.

When a licensee notifies the Commission that they have commenced providing sexually explicit entertainment, the Commission may decide to put sexually explicit entertainment conditions on the licence. If the Commission is considering imposing these conditions on the licence, the licensee will be told what the proposed conditions are, and given an opportunity to make a submission before the Commission makes a final decision. If the Commission does impose sexually explicit entertainment conditions on the licence, an annual licence renewal fee in excess of $30,000 will apply to the licence.

There is usually a cost to the licensee in complying with sexually explicit entertainment conditions in addition to the annual licence renewal fee. This may include costs relating to increased security measures and surveillance recording systems. Licensees may therefore wish to advise the Commission of their intention to provide sexually explicit entertainment before they commence. In this way, licensees have an opportunity to know in advance what licence conditions the Commission will impose on their licence, and the costs to their business, should they commence providing this entertainment.

The Act defines 'sexually explicit entertainment' to mean live entertainment that may be performed for an audience, by a person performing an act of an explicit sexual nature, but does not include the provision of sexual services within the meaning of section 3(1) of the Sex Work Act 1994.

It is the responsibility of licensees to be aware of any other requirements or restrictions that apply to the provision of sexually explicit entertainment, such as a need to obtain permission from their local council.

Privacy – The Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation collects the information contained in this form for the purposes of determining whether a licensee provides sexually explicit entertainment on the licensed premises. If provided, the information will be used for this purpose only and in accordance with the department's obligations under the Privacy and Data Protection Act 2014 and the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998. You are able to request access to the personal information that we hold about you, and to request that it be corrected. For any access or correction request, please contact the department's Freedom of Information Unit on 8684 0063.
