Training for liquor licence applicants

Training for licence applicants helps potential licensees to understand their obligations under the Liquor Control Reform Act 1998. Applicants must complete mandatory training requirements before a liquor licence is granted. There are two courses that applicants must complete. These are:

It is the applicant's responsibility to ensure the correct course is completed and to provide evidence of completion with their application.

A. New entrant training

What is new entrant training?

New entrant training is a training course developed by the Victorian Commission for Gambling and Liquor Regulation (VCGLR) to ensure that liquor licence applicants have an adequate knowledge of the liquor law. This includes:

- liquor licensing legislation
- understanding liquor licence obligations
- best practice in managing licensed premises.

Section 44 (2)(iii) of the Liquor Control Reform

Can I be exempted from RSA training?

In exceptional circumstances, a liquor licence applicant may seek an exemption from one or all of the RSA training obligations.

General, on-premises, packaged liquor or late night (general, on-premises and packaged) licence applicants must complete the 'Application for the exemption from the Responsible Service of Alcohol training requirements' form available at vcglr.vic.gov.au.

All other liquor licence applicants are required to write a letter to the VCGLR detailing the reasons for seeking an exemption before the licence is granted.

Evidence of an approved new entrant and approved RSA training course must be provided to the VCGLR prior to a liquor licence being granted, transferred or endorsed. You will be required to provide this evidence with submission of your application.
