How can I be involved?
You can support the AJA3 by:
• getting in touch with your RAJAC to find out more about their work in your community
• participating in and promoting community forums and other RAJAC activities
• raising awareness by displaying this brochure at your workplace or local community organisation.

Who can I contact for more information?

Koori Justice Unit
Tel: 8684 1766
Email: koori.justice@justice.vic.gov.au
Visit www.justice.vic.gov.au

Koori Shield © Ms Eileen Harrison, a Kurnai Woman from Gippsland. 'The markings on this shield represent our people and our country.'
Partnership structures of the AJA

The partnership structures of the AJA bring together Koori community and Victorian Government stakeholders across local, regional and state-wide levels.

What are the principles guiding AJA3?

All signatories to the AJA3 have agreed to:
1. Acknowledge diversity and the strength of connection by Koories to culture, family and country.
2. Acknowledge the impacts of dispossession.
3. Respect and honour the strength and resilience of Koori families.
4. Agree that Koories are entitled to equitable justice outcomes.
5. Be honest, transparent and accountable.
6. Ensure that arrest and imprisonment are sanctions of last resort.
7. Strengthen community justice responses.
8. Support partnerships built on genuine engagement and inclusion.
10. Strive for best practice.
11. Ensure that services meet the needs of Koories.